Listen to the story and if your grown up can help you, pause to make predictions and to discuss vocabulary in the story.

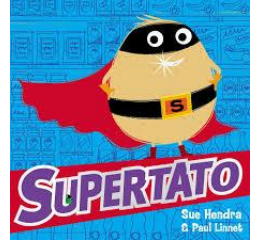

2. Book review

What was your favourite part of the story? Why did you like that part in particular? Did it make you laugh? Did it surprise you? Complete the book review on the next page. Don't forget to write in full sentences using capital letters, finger spaces and full stops. When you are explaining your favourite part of the story, don't forget to explain why using the word 'because'.

3. Extra challenge – storymap/storyboard

Can you create a storymap or a storyboard of the story? This means drawing pictures of the key events in the story and then writing key words next to the pictures. This could help you retell the story to someone in your family.
