

DAY 5

1. Super You writing

Have a look at your picture and adjectives from yesterday. Today, you are going to write your ideas down as sentences to describe yourself as a superhero. Look at the example below to help with some ideas. Can you see what is really good about the example? Can you see if there is anything underlined in green which needs editing or improving? You could get a purple pen/pencil to edit these mistakes!

My superhero name is Super Glitter Girl.

I have a red cape with silver and glittery stars.
i hav a red eye mask with sequins on and

My superpower is super strength and lightning speed. I am good at reading and help people if thai ar in trouble.

Use the superhero border pages saved on the home learning hub to write your sentences on. You can then stick your work to your superhero portrait to create something like this!
